

ELIAS JASSER

BIOGRAPHY

Elias Jasser is an Australian Actor/writer/musician born and raised in Sydney, Australia to Lebanese parents. At the age of 13 was diagnosed with a hereditary heart condition which led him down the music and acting path. At the age of 18 he signed to current Australian agent Simon Sinacori which introduced him to agents in the most prestige agency William Morris Endeavor in the United States.

Elias started dealing with Television networks in Australia at the age of 20 creating, writing his very own shows and continues to deal with them for his own projects on a regular basis. Elias has written comedy projects for networks ABC and SBS as well as projects for the USA. He has also written and starred in numerous comedy tours.

Elias comes from an acting film and television drama background. Over the past few years he has merged into comedy with training in acting at N.I.D.A, world known acting coach Howard Fine and also training in singing and guitar at the Australian Institute of Music. Elias is currently in development with his own project with Universal studios U.S.A.